DAN ENFIELD HELD
FOR FIRING LUMBER.

Squire Clark Hears Damaging Testimony Against Aged Mountaineer.

McFARLAND COMPANY SUFFERED

Evidence Against the Man Is Circumstantial Nature But Prosecution Presents Damaging Case Against the Accused Man.

Circumstantial evidence may result in old Dan Enfield spending a long term in prison, providing he is not judged insane in the meantime by a lunacy commission.

Over 70 years of age, gray-haired and feeble, he was held for court by Squire W. C. Clark this morning on charges of setting fire to the lumber yard of the McFarland Lumber Company along Indian Creek, last Friday night. Information was made against the defendant on Saturday afternoon, charging him with arson, this being charged as the burning of one of the most valuable and malicious burning, as the act of arson is distinguished by buildings from other objects, such as lumber piles. H. E. Fisher, of the lumber firm, swore out the warrant which was placed in the hands of Constable John G. Hittner, who was successful in locating and arresting the man near Steelton, Pa., in the mountains that evening.

Hittner missed connections with the train and was unable to put Enfield in the Connelville lockup before last night. When brought before the Squire this morning, he seemed to have aged considerably in the last 24 hours, and did not utter a word during the proceedings until he was asked if he would be able to furnish bail. Every few minutes he would be taken from the room, that he was in bad shape.

W. J. McFarland was the first witness called by Attorney E. C. Higbee, who represented the prosecution. His testimony was of a general nature. The fire was discovered about 11 o'clock between two piles of poplar lumber. At that time the wind was blowing the flames directly towards the lumber plant and it appeared the whole was doomed. He said the only fire about the grounds from which the blaze could have originated was about 300 feet from the place the fire started. Edward Wasserman, an employee of the lumber company, was returning from his work about 9 o'clock Friday evening when he met Enfield making his way down the tracks of the Indian Creek Valley railroad, towards the lumber yards. Joseph Burroughs, a resident of the valley, was aroused by the blasts from the fire whistle, and while hurrying towards the scene, ran into the old man, going in the opposite direction.

Richard Wilkerson was with the prisoner some time after his arrest and repeated several statements which he is alleged to have made to him. At one time he said, "I was sitting on the old arch bridge when I saw a woman run out between two piles of poplar lumber. She stopped, struck a match and the blaze flared up." At another time he said he was standing between the piles of lumber when a big woman came running up, almost running over him. This time she also lit a match and the fire started.

Frederick Humphries, employed at the plant, asked after his arrest, what the company had ever done to him that he should seek to destroy their property. He replied, "If they had stolen a match from me, you would have burnt it, too."

Attorney Higbee stated that when the case goes to a jury, additional witnesses will be present to prove that the defendant was near the property at the time of the fire.

It is the general opinion among those interested in the case, that Enfield is crazy. President McFarland said that the man is said to have threatened the lives of different members of the company. The prisoner has served time for forgery, counterfeiting and horse-stealing. He was born near Sonoma, and lived for 50 years around Mill run. He is married and has five daughters and two sons, all married. This morning he admitted to a Courier reporter that he was at the lumber yards shortly before the fire, having gone there to see Fred Stickle in regard to the purchase of some timber land which he owned. Now and then he would put his hand to his head and murmur, "It's all gone here. I can't think."

When informed as to the charge on which he was held, he denounced the lumber company, stating that it had stolen 151 acres of timber land from him. President McFarland says that the claim of ownership has been Enfield's hobby for the last 20 years, but that he never owned a foot of the land. A few years ago, Enfield walked from Mill run to Harrisburg in an effort to regain possession of what

NEW PHONE LINES PROPOSED.

Tri-State Will Rebuild Badly Battered Line Over the Mountains East.

Relief is in sight for the telephone subscribers between this point and Ohio. Superintendent Walter P. McCormick of the local office of the American Union Telephone Company is authorized for the statement, that the line is to be rebuilt and should be completed within the next three months. Some of the material is already on the ground.

The line is 22 miles long and has about 15 telephones on it. It runs through the mountainous country, through dense woods and over territory that makes trouble for the telephone men almost constantly. Within the past summer the line has worked well part of the time, not so well at other times, and not at all on quite a few occasions.

The principal difficulty is an inability to reach central. That obliging young lady responds when the signal flashes, but it doesn't always flash. Not a few times it has been necessary for the Baltimore & Ohio agent to have the Western Union operator here tell the exchange girl to get on the line.

Just now only five line-men are on the payroll here. When this number can be doubled the extra men will be put on the job.

With the building of the new line the rates are to be revised on a mileage basis. It will cost business subscribers in Ohio $50 a year instead of $30 and residences $15. This is for unlimited county service, a privilege not enjoyed by Connelville subscribers. The new line will not have more than 10 phones on it, this being the largest number that can be operated with satisfaction.

he claimed to be his. The trip took him six days.

Immediately after the hearing, Constable Hittner started for Uniontown with the prisoner.

President W. J. McFarland called at the Courthouse this morning and asked that the Uniontown fire department be thanked for the excellent service they rendered. At least $50,000 worth of property was saved through their efforts on Friday evening. He highly praised for their noble work. He said the men had a stream of water on the blaze just two hours after they were called on for assistance, and wished to thank the B. & O. for the special engine used in bringing the fire fighters to their grounds.

Mr. McFarland thinks they will be able to start the plant in operation in about a week, as soon as the docks destroyed are replaced. He thought that $2,000 would cover the lumber loss while the damage to the docks would not run over $1,000.

Commission Has
No Jurisdiction
Over Crossings

HARRISBURG, Aug. 22.—The State Railroad Commission Saturday made public its disposal of complaints received during July and the early part of August.

In the case of the pay-within-car complaints, the commission has ruled that the law does not prescribe the style of cars to be operated by street railways.

Complaints against grade crossings at Williamsburg and other places are held to be not within the jurisdiction of the commission.

The commission announced in response to complaints that the Pullman Company had notified it that it was violating its rates. Objections had been made to the rates charged on portions of the Pennsylvania main line.

It was announced that the Erie Railroad Company had agreed to improve train service at Kennard.

In the complaint of the Sterling Oil Company of Pittsburgh against the Pennsylvania for not delivery of goods consigned to propyl stations, the commission held that the railroad company has the right to maintain such stations.

Frank A. Robbins' Circus Comes To Town; Two Big Shows Scheduled.

The big Frank A. Robbins circus, now on its 25th annual tour, gives two performances on the West Side, one this afternoon and the other this evening. This is the eighth ninth day in Pennsylvania. While last year was the best of all, financially, this year, to date, is 20 per cent. better than that.

The Robbins shows have 50 acts, every one called a headliner. Everything about the show is clean and bright; no games of chance are allowed on the grounds, and the side shows possess no objectionable features.

The parade was held at 11 o'clock this morning, starting on schedule.

CONNELLSVILLE TO BE BEEF CENTER.

Will Become Distributing Point for This Region if Yards Are Built.

BUY AT EAST LIBERTY NOW

Cheaper Transportation Would Mean Lower Prices and Better Meat. Union Supply Would Have Beef Shipped Direct Here From West.

That Connelville will become a center for the distribution of live stock throughout this section is predicted as certain to follow the location at the Baltimore & Ohio stock yards at this point. Besides affording a place for the cattle to get the required exercise under the new railings of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the yards will make it possible for beef to be shipped here on the hoof, instead of butchers who buy live Western cattle have to go to the East Liberty stock yards, in Pittsburgh, to make their purchases. The additional cost of transporting the animals this far adds to the cost of the product.

With stock yard accommodations in the railroad yards here it will be possible to have the beef shipped direct to Connelville from the West.

Besides the modern slaughtering establishment on the West Side there are several other places where beef can be killed and dressed in this section.

It is stated on good authority that if the yards are built here, and there is every indication they will be, the local meat consumers will have their entire shipped direct to Connelville and this will become the distributing center for a large territory. Among the largest consumers of beef in this section to be among the first to take advantage of the new opportunities will be the Union Supply Company, with its 12 stores in the coal region. Connelville would be a far more convenient center for handling the vast numbers of cattle than East Liberty. Uniontown, Steelton and the other towns in this section would also draw from Connelville rather than going to Pittsburgh. The stock yards will make Connelville a beef center and will bring business here. Whether the railroad has fully decided to place its yards here has not been learned but the officials are giving the matter sufficient attention to warrant the belief that the problem is practically decided upon.

Gale Gets Best of Aviators; They Meet With Mishap

LONDON, Aug. 22.—Miles and Mechanics flew ascended at Upchurch today in the face of a 10-mile gale. They flew nearly an hour in good shape but the wind finally forced them to descend at Seven Oaks. They are as far from London now as before.

They landed in a plowed field, breaking their propeller, rudder and some of the wire works. The wheels buckled. The aviators telegraphed to Paris for repairs and will attempt to finish tomorrow.

Bell Subscribers
Will Pay Bills
at Office Now

Beginning September 1, 1910, the Bell Telephone Company will inaugurate a new and improved method of billing its accounts. All bills will be rendered by mail direct from the Billing office on the first day of each month, and will be payable, either by check or in person, at the local office indicated on each bill. Rentals will be billed monthly in advance, in place of quarterly in advance as heretofore.

Charges for toll service will be included upon the monthly bill and will cover toll service furnished up to the 20th of the preceding month. A memorandum showing the points connected, the number of messages, and the charges, arranged by days, will accompany each bill upon which appears an item for toll service, and in cases where further information is desired, it may be obtained from the local office upon request.

DURBIN'S COWS ROAM.

They Got on South Side Lawns and Cops Did the Rest.

John Durbin's cows wandered from home yesterday afternoon. The residents of the South Side strongly objected to cattle strutting about their gardens, especially on Sunday, and the animals were arrested by Officers McDonald and Storer.

The owner appeared this morning to claim his property, which had been given quarters in Joe Neale's livery stable.

DEFENDANT PAYS

Stewart Settles Assault and Battery Case Against Him.

Charles Stewart, employed at Slick, was before Squire P. M. Buttermore of the West Side Saturday afternoon on a charge of assault and battery made by John Simeon, who is employed at the same mill. Stewart was arrested by Officer B. Rotter.

Simeon alleged that Stewart struck him with his fist during an altercation on Friday. The information was withdrawn and the case was settled by the defendant paying the costs.

SOME CLOSE; OTHERS WON'T.

Merchants Do Not Agree on Shutting Up Shop for the Picnic at Kenneywood Wednesday.

The merchants have not agreed on closing their stores for the picnic at Kenneywood park next Wednesday. Some will; others won't. Some of the merchants are willing to close if the majority of the others do, others will keep open in any event.

A poll of the business district was made this morning. Twenty merchants say they will keep open on Thursday in spite of the picnic. Quite a number are yet "on the fence."

Others are determined to close and take in the picnic regardless whether other merchants keep open on that day.

Among the merchants this morning who say they will not close on Thursday are the following:

Mico & Company, the Wright-Metzler Company, M. H. Feldstein & Company, F. W. Horner, the Horner-Crowley Company, The Aaron Company, Featherman & Sumberg, C. W. Downs & Company, Norris & Hooper, W. R. Scott, J. R. Davidson Company, J. G. McCrorey & Company, C. M. Hyatt, Jacob Kinsbury, Millar & Company, the Schell Hardware Company, H. O. Kessig, J. M. Young, Frank Huston and H. T. Burdick.

Among those who will close are W. N. Leche, Gorman & Company, the Price Printing Company, J. H. Doyle, Wertheimer Brothers and A. W. Bishop.

"Uncle Joe" Is
In Bad With His Own Party Now

United Press Telegram.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The Republican Congressional Committee does not desire the services of Speaker Joseph G. Cannon and will not give him any speaking dates, according to a Republican leader professing positive knowledge, in a statement today.

The reasons given are that Cannon, in his Kansas speeches and other statements, advocated a policy of fighting the insurgents. Other leaders, including President Taft and the Congressional committee, it is explained, believe the less said about insurgency the better for the party.

Instead of intensifying party differences these leaders believe they should devote their time fighting the Democrats. The fact that Representatives Smith and Humphries, both Regulars, have deserted Cannon strengthens the belief that he will be defeated for chairmanship. Smith will be a candidate for the job.

No Baths Taken
by Berlin Folks;
Water is Scarce

Special to The Courier.

BERLIN, Aug. 22.—There is nothing doing here in the bathing line and the Saturday night dip was postponed last week until a future date. Why? There is a shortage of water.

The drought has been so severe that the situation is alarming. The gauge in the reservoir has shown a steady decrease in the supply until there was just cause for alarm.

Now a representative of the company comes to the curb in front of every dwelling, turns the water on for a few minutes each morning, and then shuts off the supply. There is constant noise from the

Western Maryland Men Will Not Tell Whether Route is Decided.

Has the Western Maryland decided on the route by which they are to enter Connelville? That question, when put to J. M. Palmer, division engineer, this morning brought forth a knowing smile. After a seconds' thought he said, "That I cannot deny or affirm," which indicates that one of the five routes that have been staked out has at last been decided upon. It might mean that the officials have settled the question entirely. Palmer stated that five separate surveys have been made, all on different routes, one of which approached Connelville by the way of Dunbar.

Good progress is being made on the two bridges which span the Youghiogheny river at Olney. Work upon the second bridge, which crosses the

WESTERN STATES

Situation is Worse in Menaced Section and Many Lives are Doomed.

APPEAL MADE FOR MORE TROOPS

Those in Northwest Not Sufficient to Cope with the Situation and President is Asked to Send Others. Rangers are Hemmed In.

United Press Telegram.

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 22.—There is scarcely any sign of the forest fires abating today, and the conflagrations continue to rage throughout Montana and Idaho. Wallace, Idaho, is practically destroyed, together with several other smaller towns. So far it has been impossible to get an accurate number of the deaths that have resulted from the flames, but it is estimated that 40 will cover the loss of life while the number may exceed 75. During the destruction of Wallace, 21 people were killed, four losing their lives at Newport, Wash. Governors Norris of Montana and Brady of Idaho are personally directing the fire fighters. They are planning to enter in a position to prevent Taft asking for further aid from the United States troops in both States. Those now in the Northwest are inadequate and President Taft will be asked to hurry troops from more distant points.

Six thousand rangers, citizens and soldiers are fighting the fires. Between 5,000 and 8,000 are homeless. Today's reports indicate the situation is worse except at Wallace, which is desperately fighting the flames. Newspaper men estimate that probably a third of the town may be saved.

The worst developments are in the St. Crispis district, near the Idaho-Montana line. There 500 refugees are surrounded by fire with little hope of escaping. The water supply is cut off and it is impossible to fight the flames.

The situation is more critical in Montana. The entire Western section is enveloped in a pall of dense smoke. More than 500,000 acres are threatened. A fire which started in a saw mill at Missoula and Spokane. The Missoula hospitals are crowded.

Salte, Idaho, was burned to the ground this morning, and many are missing. Elk City, Coeur d'Alene and Nampa are ringed with flames and it will be but a short time until the flames are the buildings. Scores of mining camps have been destroyed, their occupants fleeing before the fire.

The latest Montana reports say that Taft, Belknap, White Pine, Norcross and Heron are burning. Rumors say that Haughey, Montana is destroyed. DeBorgia, St. Regis, Thompson Falls and Henderson are threatened.

Dan F. Hurley is Yardmaster Here;
Succeeds Whalen

It was officially announced Saturday that Daniel F. Hurley had been appointed to take the position lately vacated by the death of Michael J. Whalen, a general yardmaster at Connelville.

The appointment was not a surprise to the many friends of Mr. Hurley, as he has occupied the position of yardmaster for the last four years, and had acted in Whalen's place during the latter's sickness.

He was born and raised in Connelville, entering the services of the Baltimore & Ohio in 1884 as a call boy. Since then, by pluck and energy he has worked himself up until he now holds the highest position in the local yard.

He is 35 years of age and resides with his wife and family in South Connelville. Hurley took up his new duties this morning.

Berryhill Land
Sold to Parties
on Saturday

At the administrator's sale of the property of the late Henry P. Berryhill, held Saturday afternoon, J. A. Mason, of W. A. R. C. Bishop purchased the property lying about the reservoir of the Mountain Water Supply Company for the sum of $2,500. This is 25 acres of the land, which has been laid out in city lots. It is the plan of the new owners to stake the property out in acre lots, making 25 lots instead of the former 20.

R. S. Horne was the purchaser of the 19 acre tract of land, the price being $1,350. His brother, Frank Pierce, bought the land underlain with coal, for $375. D. M. Hertzog is administrator of the estate. At the morning sale J. L. Studebaker bought the property about McCord's springs for $4,000, nearly 115 acres.

KING FAMILY HAD GREAT REUNION.

Hundreds of the Clan Gathered at McCoy's Springs on Saturday.

JOSEPH KING WAS THE OLDEST

Aged Somerset Man Attends and is as Spry at 83 as Many Two Score Years Younger—Four Generations are on the Grounds.

Many hundreds of relatives and friends were gathered for the first time in the history of the historic King family into one body by the reunion held at McCoy's Springs at the foot of Chestnut ridge, Saturday.

McCoy's Springs is an ideal place for holding a reunion. There are three springs on the property, each giving forth large volumes of water and helping to supply Connelville with water. There is a large stone house on the property and in and around this the grand spread was laid. There was almost enough edibles to have seen the gallant 77th regiment of the Pennsylvania Volunteers through the campaign of Chattanooga in the late rebellion.

From early morning until near 12 o'clock several haystacks and carriages were kept busy conveying people from the street cars, until the grounds fairly swarmed with humanity. The younger generation made the day an enjoyable one, indulging in all sorts of games while the older ones followed the union emblem from Fort Sumter to Lee's unconditional surrender to Grant at Appomattox Court House, or related incidents of the early history of Pennsylvania, as this State has always been the stronghold of the House of King, although after the Civil War this family became scattered to almost every State in the Union. Somerset county has been the Kings' domain.

There were four generations represented Saturday. The oldest was Joseph King of Somerset county and the youngest was but a few months old. Although the crowd came up to expectations, many of the older members were unable to be present.

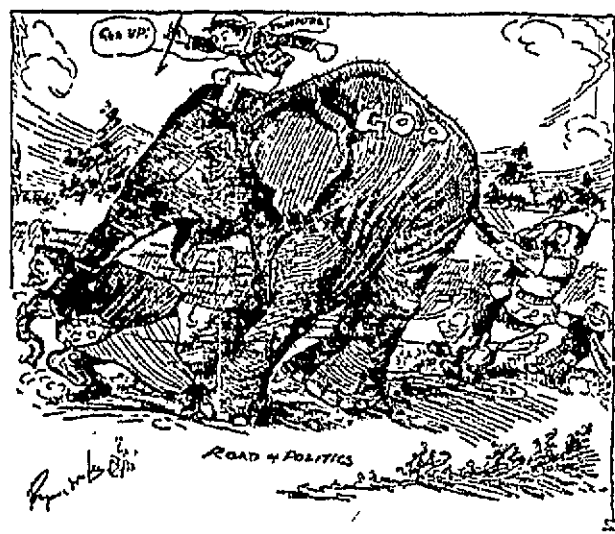

The feature of the reunion was the large number of veterans of the Civil War present. Of the direct relatives of the King family, four served under the stars and stripes and have yet to respond to taps. All four of them were present Saturday. They are: Joseph King of Company H, 86th Pennsylvania Volunteers; Alvin King of Company K, 11th Pennsylvania Volunteers; Nathaniel King of Company D, 77th Pennsylvania; and Geo. L. Graft, first with Company C, 62nd Regiment, and later of the 155th Zouaves.

The Kings are descendants of John King, who served as a lieutenant under Washington in the Revolutionary War. After the power of Great Britain was overthrown, John King settled in Berks county, but later moved to Somerset county, which has since been the stronghold of the King clan.

Charles P. King, a grandson of Cashimire King, served in the Philippines in the Spanish-American War. An effort is being made by the committee in charge to write a complete history of the King family dating as far back as the Revolutionary War. Five generations back, and to hold a reunion, if possible, annually.

Roosevelt has broken with Taft.—News Item.

Summer Has Been the Busiest Ever; Ohiopyle Hotels Make New Records.

Special to The Courier.
OHIOPILE, Aug. 22.—The crest of the summer season here was reached with yesterday and from now on there will be a falling off in the number of summer boarders, to some extent. The latter part of August always marks the moridian of the vacation season. It will not end for weeks yet, but the rush is practically over.

Ohiopyle has never before known such a summer. Not only have the migratory visitors been more numerous than ever before, but the presence of the construction forces on the Western Maryland has lent a peculiar fascination to the spot. In place of the usual, principal surroundings that come the march of industry; here, active engineers; hardy contractors, men whose life is to blaze the path of progress through the wilderness; men garbed in khaki and leggings, with battered hats that remind one of the West. The town has been no detriment to Ohiopyle. It has been a blessing. None of the construction work is so much as to annoy in the least degree.

The Ferncliff has had the most profitable season this year of the four that Charles S. Pow has been manager of that hotel. It has also been a busy season for W. D. Gilchrist's Ohiopyle House. Special has been at a premium and last week every spare cot in reach was requisitioned into commission.

At both hotels people have been turned away because every available room and corner was preempted. It is believed from now on it will not be difficult to accommodate the visitors. Manager Pow of the Ferncliff will inaugurate a new feature this year. Instead of closing the hotel early in September special rates will be given and the house will not be closed for the winter until October 1 or later, according to the weather that prevails.

Last week was a jolly one. Three dances were given in the Ferncliff grounds, the last and largest on Saturday evening when a number of Connelville and Dawson people attended.

CHURCH MAKES MONEY.
Hickory Square Congregation Makes Hard Fight Against Debt.

BROAD FORD, Aug. 22.—The supper held at the Hickory Square Church, on the hill overlooking this place, was a brilliant success and a great sum was realized. This old church, one of the oldest in the Morgan valley, had gotten far behind in its financial affairs and the supper was the means they took to help meet their difficulties and have been successful in their efforts.

The church had been running smoothly until the depression in the coke trade struck the Morgan valley and hundreds of men were thrown out of employment and many moving to other parts. Affairs then along the valley had a different view. There was a very large crowd in attendance.

Hilda the Helper went along about her daily duty, singing a helpful, cheery song and radiating beauty.

The town beneath her magic touch became a PLACE ATTRACTIVE. New folks poured in to beat the Dutch, and really was active.

The merchants all were sunny smiles, which showed increase of business. Why, SHOPPERS CAME FROM MILES AND MILES. The rush was quite a dizziness.

FOREST FIRES FIERCELY RAGE.

Cities and Towns Laid Waste; Wallace, Idaho, Burning.

MANY ARE KNOWN TO BE DEAD

Property Damage is Enormous—Loss at Wallace $100,000 and Growing Greater—Flames Worst in History of Montana—Travel Mile an Hour.

Missoula, Mont., Aug. 22.—Half of the town of Wallace, Idaho, lies in smoking ruins and heavy clouds of smoke hang about the country through which the light of the fires shows copper and red. Two lives were lost during the destruction of the town of 6,000 population, one of the wealthiest of its size in the country.

Large manufacturing concerns and mining plants were destroyed together with large business blocks and several of the finest residences in the state.

Several trains run by the Milwan-kee and the Northern Pacific removed hundreds of the homeless out of danger.

Thirteen Dead.

It is said that thirteen are dead and the property loss will be a million.

All day long refugees have been pouring into this city from the pro-stricken districts in the west. Bringing heartrending tales of suffering and distress. The Northern Pacific has operated four relief specials during the day and has brought nearly 1,000 people here.

The Chicago, Milwaukee and St.
Paul had a special made up of every available sort of equipment in which 500 passengers were huddled.

The smoke which settled over this city is so dense that it is as dark as midnight with a crimson glow showing through the smoke in the west.
Fire, ashes and wood cinders are falling over the city.

From the Blackfoot region comes a rumor of disaster by fire.

Further north it is said the fire is uncontrollable and all the residents are fleeing.

150 Burned to Death?

The telephone officials have rumors of 150 firefighters being burned to death in Clear Lake.

The Milwaukee officials report two bridges burned on the east side of the Bitter Root di. di.

Bates and Rogers construction camp near the summit of the divide has been destroyed by fire with loss of life, but the number of fatalities cannot be learned at this time.

Charred Remains Found.

Further down the mountains the charred remains of men were found near the tracks. The Milwaukee railroad depots at Anderson and Deborga were burned and during the evening the station at Hangan was also destroyed.

The fire is reported sweeping along the northern Montana gulch toward the old town of St. Regis and officials on the Soo declare that the town will be destroyed. Another fire is reported on the lower Blackfoot, about six miles north of Bonner, which is six miles west of Missoula.

SITUATION HOPELESS IN FLAT HEAD COUNTY.

Helena, Mont., Aug. 22.—The forest fire situation in Montana is the worst in the history of the state. Last reports from the Flat Head county before communication was cut off was to the effect that the situation was wretched hopeless.

The Bitter Root valley fires have also secured renewed vigor. J. M.
Kennedy of the bureau of protection received information that the town of Libby was surrounded by fire and that the situation was critical.

Eureka was also reported surrounded, while the fires at Avon had broken out afresh.

Heavens Aglow.

In Helena both the southern skies, as well as those to the north and east, are aglow, indicating that the flames are rapidly creeping up the Rocky mountains from the westward.
A few blocks is the limit one may see so dense is the smoke in Helena.

The Helena fire department fought brush fires just west of the city limits.
All fires between Helena and Spokane on both the Great Northern and Northern Pacific are down, the poles having burned.

An unverified report has reached here that an Oriental limited train on the Great Northern has been ditched between two fires, while it is also reported that a fresh fire has broken out in Ten Mile valley, about fifteen miles south of Helena.

May Call Out State Troops.

Governor Norris, who is making a tour of the state, with the army engineers on their inspection of irrigation prospects is expected here today and will doubtless call all the state troops out to assist the regulars.

Still another message says that the town of Sylvanite, in Lincoln county, has been wiped out. Governor Norris has been wired for 500 men for the Libby district. Fires are now advancing on it from two directions.

The town of Taft, on the Idaho line, and St. Regis in Missoula county,

THREE MEN OF MIDDLE WEST MAY STRIVE TO SUCCEED SPEAKER CANNON.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Since the passage of the statement of Congressman Nicholas Longworth that he will not vote for Speaker Cannon again, coming, as it did, immediately following a visit with President Taft at Boston, there has been much talk of a successor in the powerful position long occupied by Uncle Joe. Walter I.

Smith of Iowa has been mentioned frequently in the news dispatches as a likely successor, and Representative James Tawney of Minnesota has also come in for a share of the talk as another candidate. Of course should the Democrats win a majority of the seats in the lower house Champ Clark of Missouri will be their choice. No other Democrat is prominently mentioned for the place, and it is generally conceded that the Missouri man will win easily should his party be successful.

RIOT AT CLOSE OF MEETING.

All Existing Strikes Indorsed By the Miners' Convention.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 22.—The special convention of the United Mineworkers adjourned just after a riot in which two men were knocked out and one so badly beaten with pop bottles that it required a physician to sew up the gashes in his scalp.

The riot was a delegate from Missouri, who had stood by Lewis in the exciting debate over the substitution for the committee report and his assaults were delegates from Illinois.

Speaking of the results of the convention President Lewis said the indorsement of all existing strikes, which are to be supported by an assessment of $1 per week on every working miner.

"The fact that the convention failed to reaffirm the position of the mineworkers in respect to wage contracts when made may temporarily make a bad impression, but it does not reflect the attitude of the membership. The alleged referendum vote of Illinois will be counted and the result announced, not because it will have any effect, but will simply gratify the prejudice of a body of men."

President Lewis intimated very strongly that the organization would not change its policy in respect to the employment of organizers when he said:

"We have always had organizers and always will have them, as long as we have 400,000 nonunion miners in this country."

ROUND UP MISSING GIRLS

Ten Maidens, Farmers' Daughters, Found by Pittsburgh Police.

Pittsburgh, Aug. 22.—Pittsburgh has become the port of missing maidens.
Ten country girls, farmers' daughters, ranging in age from sixteen to twenty years, who collected by the police and are now at the Central station awaiting word from home. They are: Mary Brody, Monongahela, Pa.; Nora Woods, Bridgeport, O.; Lillian Jorico, McDonald, Pa.; Elizabeth Farrington, Conifer, Jefferson county, Pa.; May Dean, Industry, Pa.; Elizabeth Wilson, Charleroi, Pa.; Tilley Smith, Washington, Pa.; Beven Wall, Washington, Pa.; Evelyn Stewart, Coshocton, O.; Edna Mason, Coshocton, O.

When the girls were captured, they burst into tears and pleaded to be sent home, saying they would never stray again. They said they had been lured to this city by specious promises which had not been fulfilled.

Robber Gets Long Sentence.

Washington, Pa., Aug. 22.—Kern Smith, who was charged with robbery and felonious assault and battery on Mr. and Mrs. William Noble, an age couple living near Centerville, Pa., was found guilty of aggravated assault and battery. The court gave him an indeterminate sentence of from three years and three months to thirty years in the Western penitentiary of Pennsylvania.

REBELS WIN OUT IN NICARAGUA.

President Madriz Resigns and Leaves Capital
in a Hurry.

ESTRADA'S FORCES VICTORIOUS

State Department at Washington Receives Official Confirmation of Routing of Nicaragua Troops—Americans, Says Dispatch, are Menaced.

Managua, Nicaragua, Aug. 22.—As a result of peace conferences President Madriz has resigned the presidency of Nicaragua to Jose Estrada, the insurgent general's brother, and fled with his family to Corinto. General Mena opposed the surrender and, with his forces, has captured and looted Granada.

Government Forces Routed.

Bluefields, by wireless to Colon, Aug. 22.—(Delayed in Transmission).

Seven hundred government troops commanded by General Rivas attacked Generals Mena and Chamorro, who were occupying a position on the outskirts of Granada, the principal city of Nicaragua on the Pacific coast. In the desperate fighting the Madrizites were defeated, General Rivas being killed.

The revolutionists are now in complete possession of Granada. The residents of the city made a demonstration over their freedom from President Madriz's control. General Mena is now rapidly sweeping the country. He intends to advance on Managua immediately. General Estrada, the revolutionary leader, is at Acogapa, en route to Granada. The government officials in Granada escaped in the ship Victoria to San Carlos.

All the advances from the front indicate the government's forces are in a bad way and the capture of Managua is expected.

Washington Hears the News.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Official confirmation has been received at the state department of the downfall of the Madriz faction in Nicaragua.

The defeat of the Madriz troops on the eighteenth and the crossing of the Tipitapa river by the entire invading army of Estrada was confirmed. The troops of General Toledo, who commanded the Madriz faction, were stampeded and fled to Managua.

The family of Madriz had left Managua for Corinto and were to be followed by Dr. Madriz, who, after having relinquished the remnants of his authority, was preparing to flee from the country. The advice declares that Managua was in turmoil and that the demonstrations were being made against the United States.

servation since about two weeks ago, when reports of hostility to American citizens on the part of Madriz factions at Managua and Matagalpa had made it necessary for the state department to make vigorous protest.

Frank Mullin never pitched better ball than Saturday when Trotter de-fected Morgan 7 to 0 in a fast contest. Morgan did not play its usual game but Trotter was there every minute of the time. Even had Morgan come at its usual clip, Mullin's pitching was an obstacle almost impossible to overcome.

He was given gilded support at all stages of the game and Trotter was never in danger. Morgan played a good game but inability to hit the ball caused its final defeat since joining the Frick league. The performance of Mullin was all the more creditable because he twisted against Davidson the day before and won.

The game was witnessed by several hundred enthusiastic fans who cheered their respective teams. Morgan brought a great crowd of rooters along but they had few opportunities to feel cheerful. The victory ties Trotter with Morgan for second place.
The Frick league race is becoming interesting, to say the least. Here's the score:

FRICK LEAGUE MEETS; DISPUTED GAMES UP

Superintendents Are Told To Get Together and Make Amicable Arrangements.

The Central Frick League held a meeting Saturday night at which time one protested game was considered and another discussed that has not been protested. "Business before baseball" was the keynote of the session. Superintendent V. D. Callahan has protested the forfeited game awarded Trotter last week when the Lebanon team did not appear. Callahan had his troubles that day; mistakes within the infra and mistakes without. It was impossible to get the team together. Superintendent Trotter of the Trotter team was not at the meeting. Callahan was advised to take the matter up with him.

Ditter objected to a forfeited game to Blair, being unable to play for the same reason Lebanon could not appear. Superintendents Page and Warnock were advised to get together on this.

The best of feeling prevails among the teams of the league. There is not the slightest friction and the organization is making a most enviable record in this respect.

Morgan Team Gets Manager; Wall is the Man

Special to The Courier.

OWNSDALE, Aug. 22.—The Morgan baseball team will be under new management from now on. This is not reflecting on the former management but being unable to handle the team, for such is not the case.
Manager Hiley had the care of the entire team to look after, acting as both manager and captain. After some scouting he has been able to get one of the best baseball men in the entire region to help in the management of the team and this week will find some changes in the team's lineup. Wall, formerly of Lebanon, will run the team.

Morgan has not lost hope by being let down by Mullin with two hits Saturday but takes it cheerfully, and extends to Trotter's men thanks for the treatment they received. The Morgan boys have been in narrow straits since the team entered the league, both financially and otherwise, being compelled to meet every expense on their own hook and receiving little outside assistance. Often times the players would go on the diamond as soon as they came from their labors not having time to get a little rest, but they stuck together.
The season is not yet over.

CONNELLSVILLE QUARTET CAMPING AT OHIOPILE

S. S. Clark, R. S. Morton, Charles Triplet and J. E. Donnelly Have Fine Time in Mountains.

One of the best camps along the Yough river is that of four Connellsville lads making their headquarters at Ohiopile. They are S. S. Clark, Ralph Morton, Charles Triplet and J. E. Donnelly, with a force of cooks, dishwashers and general assistants.
The boys have pitched their tents near campers' spring, in the Pennell grounds, but the spring went dry the first time in years just before the party arrived. There is plenty of water at hand, however.

The boys will break camp next Saturday after more than two weeks of real, good rest. As in former years, friends are given a hearty welcome and none leave without partaking of the bounteous good things to eat.
Hard shell crabs were on the bill of fare Saturday and Sunday. They were fine. Filled chicken was the main dish at the Sunday dinner.

Sam Clark is the commander of the party, his camping experience extending over a period of 20 years or more. What Sam doesn't know about camping isn't worth knowing, and he doesn't overlook any details either.

There are big square meals a day and a swim in the river every afternoon, followed by a nap, in the outline fullowed. Joe Donnelly declares all have to do a lot of work but Clark isn't so sure about it. They ought to, Sam thinks, and he doesn't let any of them overlook any bits along that line. It is a fine camp, the best any local lads ever had, and already the coming week seems almost too soon to break up and leave.

"Atlantic City?" asked one of them. "Not on your life. This beats all the Atlantic City ever invented." When there is nothing else to do the boys show the Western Maryland men how to build their railroad.

Baseball Fatality.
Sandusky, O., Aug. 22.—While participating in a game between picked clubs of fellow campers at Ryebach Curtis Wade Winkler, son of Oscar Winkler of the Jones River Dry goods company, Columbus, was struck over the heart by a pitched ball and rendered unconscious. He died two hours later.

TRAINS MEET; DEATH FOR SIX.

Two Freight Trains Crash on Central of Vermont Railroad.

SEVERAL ARE BADLY INJURED

Said Engineer of One of the Trains Ran Past Signal and Collision Soon Followed—Valuable Race Horses Destroyed.

Northfield, Vt., Aug. 22.—In a head-on collision between two freight trains at Northfield Falls, two miles north of here, six men were killed and several others were seriously injured.
Several valuable race horses owned for Canadian tracks were destroyed.
All the men killed were members of the two trains. It will be impossible to identify most of them, as the wreck age took fire immediately after the crash and there remains but little more than a smoldering pile.

The accident occurred on the main line of the Central Vermont road.
When help reached the scene they found the two trains piled one upon another and burning fiercely. One after another the bodies were taken out and laid along side of the track, most of them nothing but a charred mass. These injured were taken out:
D. S. Hammett of St. Albans, a brakeman on the southbound train, was injured about the head and breast and will probably die; W. Wynn of Faverhill, Mass., engineer on the northbound train, sustained fractured skull and broken hip; Leon Laberge of St. Albans, fireman on the northbound train, had his skull fractured and ribs broken. Three others are known to have been injured but their names cannot be learned.

It was said here that Wynn ran by a signal a short distance past the Northfield station. A few minutes later the collision occurred. There was a terrific impact and the engine and cars of the heavy train were piled upon the top of the lighter train.
Immediately the wreckage took fire and fanned by a brisk wind the flames quickly spread over the length of the train.

JAIL SENTENCE FOR HUNTER

Fined $50.00 For Killing Few Small Birds Near Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, Aug. 22.—A yellow hammerhead, two red-breasted robins, a wren, a sparrow and a bluebird landed J. E. Miller in the county jail here.
He had slaughtered them. It is alleged, in the woods near Swissvale.

Constable John Daniel was attracted by the report of the gun and halted Miller before Justice of the Peace Robert Boyd, who, after hearing the evidence, taxed Miller $50.00. Miller must serve one day in jail for each dollar of the fine if some of his friends do not go to the rescue.

ST. LOUIS GETTING LARGE

1910 Census Gives Mound City Population of 687,029.

Washington, Aug. 22.—The census bureau has given out the population of St. Louis as 687,029. St. Louis has increased 19.4 per cent, or 111,791, in population in ten years.

St. Louis took fourth place among the cities of the country in 1890, when she passed Boston. Boston is the only city that stands a chance of dislodging St. Louis from fourth place, but observers here are inclined to believe the two cities will maintain their relative rank in the 1910 census. The census figures for Boston are yet to be made public.

This store will be open for business as usual Wednesday, August 24th.

LOOK FOR THE NEW GOODS, THEY ARE COMING.

During the latter half of this month, the Union Supply Company will be receiving at all of their 63 stores, large consignments of new fall goods.
It is early, we admit, yet it is necessary for us to prepare early. The goods arriving now are general lines for every department; every department is being filled up. The clearance sales are winding up; the bargains are about cleaned out; there are a few yet for late customers and they are the greatest bargains of the season. They will be displayed and pushed while the new goods are coming in. If you have money to spend there are great opportunities.

The New Fall Goods Now Arriving Will Be Marked, Put on the Shelves and Placed on Sale at once. Children starting to school for September, will find full equipment of early fall goods and early fall styles. Everybody wants their children to look nice on the first day of school; we are prepared to equip them with whatever you want. Nice new dresses for the little girls; all sorts of ribbon for the hair, hosiery, shoes and other furnishings.
Complete outfits for the boys; clothing, shoes, hats, etc., and remember it does not require very much to fit them out, you can do it for a small amount of money.
